West Haven, Connecticut 06516

Monday, May 19, 2025

Nicholas Pascale, Chairman
City Council
City of West Haven

RE: Authorization of LOCIP project name “Public Facilities”, in the amount of $76,109.04 added to the Capital Improvement Plan within the FY 2024-2025 Capital Budget.

Dear Chairman Pascale

I am seeking approval to add the above-mentioned matter to the May 27, 2025, agenda.

The Finance Department and Public Works department are seeking to add the above project to the FY 2024-2025 capital improvement plan.

The City of West Haven is seeking to add the above project as part of the FY 2024-2025 Capital Improvement Plan and obligate the remaining LOCIP project funds. The funds would be used for public facility projects that are on-going and in the planning stage. As per LOCIP entitlement guidelines, funds for public buildings include but are not limited to construction, renovation, code compliance, energy conservation, and fire safety.

Per LOCIP Guidelines, the municipality’s legislative body must approve the project, and such approval is documented in certified minutes of the required municipal meeting(s).

Please do not hesitate to contact us with any questions.

Sincerely,

Phil Sissick
Commissioner of Public Works

Re: An Ordinance Amending Chapter 178 of the Code of the City of West Haven: Posting of Bills

Dear Chairman Pascale:

This communication is to formally request that the City Council approve the attached amendment to Chapter 178 of the West Haven City Code: Posting of Bills.

Chapter 178 currently prohibits the placing of advisements, notices, pictures, playbills or lettering on telephone poles, trees, structures or grounds within the city limits, and provides a fine of $50 for each offense.

The proposed amendment will provide a fine of $200 for each posting that is commercial in nature, while maintaining the fine for non-commercial postings at $50.

Thank you for your consideration of this amendment to the existing ordinance that will further enhance the quality of life for the citizens of West Haven and those who visit our beautiful city.

Dorinda Borer

Mayor
