Continued:

1. Update on Harbor Management Survey – Mr. Steadman stated there were 551 responses last month and as of today there are 562 with an additional four paper copies. Commissioners discussed whether it should continue for another month and when the public hearing will be scheduled. It was decided that a summary of all the responses be posted on the website.
2. Continued discussions on Harbor Management Plan Draft – Mr. Steadman will send the first chapters sometime later this week. He is waiting for the representative of the Haven Development to come before this commission before recommendations are made. Commissioner Flynn reviewed the chapters that were sent to him and he feels they were fine. Specific recommendations are the boat launching area, the waste treatment site, the continued wetland restoration area at Old Cove Creek and Cove River, dealing with pollution into the Cove River, and switching April St. site to new launch site. Assistant City Planner Killeen explained the harbor commission role in new development with regards to the harbor.
3. Referrals from Planning and Zoning Commission:

City Planner Killeen explained the harbor commission's role in new development with regards to the harbor. He stated the city felt that some of the regulations need revision with regards to developments near the harbor. The following text and zone change is being applied for by the city.

a. Proposed Text Changes, Application # ZR-16-190

He summarized the changes/revisions that are suggested that will effect open space, paved walkways, impervious coverage and parking/parking garages. Commissioners questioned how they can approve these changes without seeing the actual site development plan and were concerned about the percentage requirement for open space and impervious coverage. These changes have been forwarded to DEEP and Mr. Killeen will send the response when he receives it. Commissioner Flynn suggested reviewing these changes and waiting for DEEP's responses.

- b. Proposed Zoning Map Change, Application #ZM-16-191- this includes the properties on Main St. and Bayview Park area to be in the WD district. This area could be used for the shared parking regulation but it needs to be the same designation. It was requested that the commissioners be able to see the site plan when it is submitted prior to their meeting or the public hearing. Plans will be made available at the P & Z office when received and commissioners will be notified.
