Mayor Rossi and Finance Director Jackson Issue Joint Statement

WEST HAVEN, Feb. 24, 2023 — In response to widespread speculation, Mayor Nancy R. Rossi and Finance Director Scott D. Jackson have released a joint statement.

Rossi said: “After serving as West Haven’s finance director for the past year, Scott Jackson has decided to move forward in his public service career. Scott will continue to assist and support the city on bonding and budgetary matters in the coming weeks during his career transition. It has been a pleasure working with Scott, and the city has benefited greatly from his expertise. We wish him the very best in his future endeavors.”

Jackson said, “It has been my pleasure to work with so many hardworking city employees and dedicated City Council members to advance the best interests of West Haven.”

No further comments will be issued.
