Mayor Rossi Statement on The Haven Development Project

WEST HAVEN, May 17, 2022 — Mayor Nancy R. Rossi has released a statement on The Haven Development Project, the proposed $200 million, 261,182-square-foot waterfront luxury outlet center in the city's Water Street area.

"I, along with West Haven's General Assembly delegation, have organized a productive meeting with the state Department of Economic and Community Development and high-level administrators with the Simon Property Group/The Haven Development team before the end of the month. We expect this to be a productive meeting.

The city will continue to enforce existing laws, ordinances and regulations, as we are required to concerning the property in West Haven known as The Haven Development Project. We expect to know a timetable or direction for the project at the conclusion of that meeting, and we will report the status of the proposed development project at this time."
